A CHOCOLATE AFFAIR

(Greer, SC) The Greater Greer Rotary Club presents its second annual Chocolate Affair on Saturday, October 18, 2008, from 7:30 – 10:30 p.m. in the new Greer City Complex located at 301 East Poinsett Street in Greer Station. It will be an evening of delicious chocolate desserts, libations and entertainment---all contributing to the evening's allure. Chamber music will be provided by local high school students. Proceeds will benefit local high school students through academic scholarships for students from Blue Ridge, Byrnes, Greer and Riverside high schools.

Participating vendors include: The Coffee Station, Café Paulette Grill, Godiva Chocolate, Iced, Rechaud's, The Cazbah, Café Rivera, The Melting Pot, Laurenda's Family Restaurant & Catering, and the Culinary Class of J. Harley Bonds Career Center.

Tickets are $25 per person, and may be purchased at the following email address: ticketsales@greer-rotary.com. You may also access our web at www.greer-rotary.com, or you may call 864.304.2527. Tickets will also be available at the door.

"Any opportunity to support our students in their academic achievements is one shared by each member of our Rotary Club," stated Karen Crane, Chairman of this event. Mrs. Crane added, "It is exciting to know we can help with a deserving student's future education."

Brian Forrester, President of the Rotary Club said, "We Rotarians are excited about our evening of chocolate. Not only do we raise money for scholarships for local high school students, but we also have fun as well as we get to meet all the people who support this event, and of course, the desserts are fabulous!"

Come out and enjoy a special evening with friends, family and other supporters of the Rotary Club's efforts to raise funds for academic scholarships for local high school students.
