THE INTERNATIONAL BALLET IS JOINING THE FALL GALLERY WALK

(Greer, South Carolina) Thursday, September 11th is the final installment of the Fall Gallery Walk in Greer Station, Greer's Hip and Historic Downtown. Not only can you view the many different styles of art from local professional artists and students from the Visual and Performing Arts Department at the Greer Campus of Greenville Tech, but you can also be introduced to the performing arts of the International Ballet.

The International Ballet will be at the beautifully restored Davenport, at the corner of Trade and Randall Streets. You can meet the dancers, see costumes up close, and check out behind-the-scenes photos from their many productions.

International Ballet Academy, on Batesville Road in Greer, offers the highest level of classical ballet training for the young student to the professional dancer. Modern, Jazz and Character classes are offered to students that have acquired a foundation in classical ballet enabling them to expand their training and knowledge.

The Fall Gallery Walk in Greer Station is an ideal opportunity for your friends and family to experience a wide range of arts and artistry in our community. For more information on the International Ballet Academy, please visit their website at <http://internationalballetacademy.net/IBA.htm>.

Please join Greer Station, Greer's Hip and Historic Downtown, this Thursday from 5:30pm-8:00pm in celebrating the arts.
