Roof-top Dining in Greer Station

The Greer Development Corporation (GDC) and the Greer Station Association (GSA) are pleased to announce the opening of The Cazbah at 308 Trade Street in historic downtown Greer. Anticipation has been building, and The Cazbah has announced it will open to the public on July 21, 2009 at 5:00pm.

“The Cazbah kids are very excited about coming to Greer, and excited about the overwhelming response of the community to our joining the Greer community.” states Audrey Stenger, co-owner of The Cazbah. Ms. Stenger added, “the roof top is 1600sq ft and has it’s own bar. There is also a stage area where we will feature acoustic music and local artists painting live on occasion.”

The Cazbah has a staff of 35 employees. The Cazbah has a sleek, sexy, contemporary feel that caters to a sophisticated, creative, high-energy consumer. The menu changes quarterly, offering 30 to 35 American tapas items. All appetizers, “tapas”, are from scratch. Items such as lobster cigars, beef Wellington, sesame-seared tuna, and tuna served with chopsticks, have sold thousands. The wine selection is extensive, and is aggressively priced.

The Cazbah is open Monday thru Friday from 5:00pm until 2:00am and Saturday from 6pm until midnight.

Please join The Cazbah on July 21st at 5:00pm, and see what all the buzz is about.
