Trade Street Deli at Rhythm & Brews Opens in Greer Station

The Greer Development Corporation (GDC) and Greer Station Association (GSA) are pleased to announce that Trade Street Deli at Rhythm & Brews at 213 Trade Street, in historic downtown Greer, will be open for lunch starting on June 7, 2010.

“Greer Station offers a great selection of fantastic restaurants and I just think everyone here can use a little deli in their lives,” states Nick Harvey, Lunch Manager of Trade Street Deli at Rhythm & Brews.

Trade Street Deli at Rhythm & Brews will offer Boar’s Head meat, cheese, and specialty breads, which are baked locally. At Trade Street Deli you have the option to create your own sandwich or pick from one of the many specialty sandwiches. One of the favorites will be The OMP “Oh My Pimento”, which is a Hot Roast Beef or Roasted Chicken topped with an infamous melted Pimento Cheese on grilled Pumpernickel. Sides include cucumber, potato or pasta salad and chips. Lunch combos start at $6.50.

“The place is already well established as Rhythm & Brews, owned by Brad Blevins. He and I decided to start offering lunch as Trade Street Deli.” We will offer a simple deli style lunch, with a wide variety of fine meats and cheeses, as well as fresh bread and produce at an affordable price,” states Mr. Harvey.
