Wild Ace Lands in Greer Station

The Greer Development Corporation (GDC) and the Greer Station Association (GSA) is pleased to announce the opening of Wild Ace Pizza and Pub at 109 Trade Street in historic downtown Greer. After only 27 days of construction, Wild Ace Pizza and Pub opened to a huge Family Festival crowd on May 1, 2009.

“The positive feedback of our menu and concept has been overwhelming,” states owner, Denise VandenBerghe. “We’ve got the best staff and the customers seem to really enjoy both our food and atmosphere.”

Wild Ace Pizza and Pub has a staff of 16 full time and 6 part time employees. Wild Ace features NY style pizza and pizza by the slice, sandwiches, salads, and calzones as their specialty food menu items. The Pub offers 10 draft beers, 38 bottled beers, and a fully stocked bar with specialty drinks. Wild Ace Pizza and Pub also offers $1.00 off all alcoholic drinks during Happy Hour, Monday-Saturday from 4:00-7:00pm.

Wild Ace Pizza and Pub is open Monday thru Saturday from 11:00am until 11:00pm and later on the weekends. They also offer delivery for those businesses in the 12 block downtown district and curbside pick up for all others.

“We welcome Wild Ace Pizza and Pub to downtown Greer,” said Allison Clark, Co-Owner of BIN112 and chairman of the Greer Station Association. “Wild Ace is a great addition to our community and downtown. It adds to the diversity of our restaurants. We wish them great success,” states Ms. Clark.
