GREER STATION ASSOCIATION HOLDS 2007 ANNUAL MEETING

The Greer Station Association (GSA) recently held their annual meeting and elections at Victoria Place Salon and Spa in historic downtown Greer.

Melissa Thomas, Commercial Development Director for the Greer Development Corporation and Secretary/Treasurer for the Greer Station Association highlighted a few of the many accomplishments of the GSA in 2007. In 2007, the GSA initiated member dues and bylaws which led to an ability to fund projects and recruit new members. The GSA experienced a 17% increase in participation by members this year.

The GSA participated in a fundraising activity by selling raffle tickets during Oktoberfest in Greer Station for a day long driving school at BMW. They were able to raise over $700 in this endeavor. There have been quite a few successful marketing endeavors including the Greer Station billboard on I-85, shop local signs for use during festivals downtown, holiday open house ads, and visitors guide books in Greenville hotels which highlight Greer.

The officers elected to serve on the Greer Station Association Board of Directors for 2008 are as follows:

Mike Howell, Chair, GreerNow Magazine
Peter Tripp, Vice-Chair, The Vintage Jewelry
Melissa Thomas, Secretary/Treasurer, Greer Development Corporation
Adele Langford, Langford Electric
Allison Clark, BIN112
Julie Brown, JOY Real Estate
Kim McAbee, Kim's Fabrics and More

The Greer Station Association congratulates these officers and looks forward to another successful year.
